A. V. ALLEN,ASK MORE PAY.*Diamond Cutters' Union in Position to Demand High Wages.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Negotiations are in progress between the Diamond Manufacturers of America and the Diamond Workers Protective Union relative to a demand by the members of the latter organization for higher wages. The men obtained an advance a year ago and the pay now ranges from $30 to $70 weekly, according to a man's proficiency. The contract signed at that time has expired but the workers have agreed to continue at the old scale until the present stand is disposed of. If advances are granted they are to date back to the expiration of the old contract. New York has 800 of these workers and there are no less than a dozen in other cities of the those in Europe are affiliating. The number of men employed in the world's factories is 15,000. The New Yorkers are getting double the pay of eight years ago. Manufacturers will not entrust diamond cutting and polishing of inexperienced men and the unions limit their apprentices hence the high wages.

GLADLY ACCEPTED.

HARRIMAN DENIES.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—In what he said would be his last interview with newspapers, E. H. Harriman has told 150 newspapermen regarding the report that he purchased the Reading stock today, that he had not purchased a single share of stock since he had been in Washington. He refused to answer the question whether he had secured control of that road.
